This is a sum within the limit of which the insurance reimbursement is paid out; the amount of the sum insured shall reflect the reinstatement/replacement or/and market value of the insured object; sum insured for each object of insurance shall be specified in a respective insurance policy to which the provisions and terms of this Agreement shall apply; additional insurance reimbursement limits may be also determined, which will be reflected in respective insurance policy as well.
- 5.2. The Sum insured / sub-limit is exhaustible and is reduced by the amount of reimbursement issued each time. It can be restored on the basis of a written application in exchange for the payment of an additional insurance premium determined by the Insurer.
- 5.3. There is stipulated a deductible in the Insurance policy, which is the amount deducted from the loss amount for each insured event for which the Insurer is not responsible.
- 5.4. Insured subjects can be added upon agreement with the Insurer in exchange for additional premium payment. For this reason, an addendum to the policy will be issued, which will take effect upon payment of the additional premium, unless otherwise stipulated by the Insurance policy.

Article 6. Insurance Premium

- 6.1. The amount of the insurance premium to be paid by the Insured to the Insurer for each particular object, sum insured, Insurer's liability limits, insurance rates and the amount of unconditional deductible shall be determined by relevant individual Insurance Policy on the basis of the data filled in the particular Insurance Application presented by the Insured.
- 6.2. Before making the first or single premium payment provided for under the Policy by the Insured, as well as the first premium payment or first/single insurance premium payment per each following year in case of multi-year policy, the Insurer shall be released from fulfillment of obligations.
- 6.3. In case of non-payment of the insurance premium on time i.e. by the date specified under the Insurance Policy, the Insurer shall set the additional two-week deadline for the Insured to pay the insurance premium. If after the expiration of the aforementioned deadline the insured event occurs and the payment still has not been performed, the Insurer shall be released from obligation to pay out the insurance indemnification. In addition, in case of non-payment of premium on time on the basis of one month prior written notification upon the ineffectual expiration of the aforementioned deadline the Insurer shall reserve the right to terminate the insurance agreement unilaterally.

Article 7. Calculating indemnification

- 7.1. The amount of the insurance reimbursement shall be defined as reinstatement, market or replacement value of the subject insured within the scope of the sum insured excluding deductible and paid sums for previous events (if any).
- 7.2. In case by the moment of occurrence of insured event the sum insured is less than the insured value (reinstatement, market or replacement value) of the insured property, the Insurer shall indemnify the loss pursuant to correlation of the sum insured and the reinstatement (replacement, market) value i.e. the damage to be paid out will be reduced in the proportion as the sum insured's proportion is to the reinstatement (replacement, market) value of the insured property. This condition is applicable to any single insured subject.
- 7.3. If it turns out that the maximum base value (insured amount - indicated by the insured) of the stocks / finished goods ready for sale at the moment of the insured event is less than the base value thereof at the time of the accident, the amount indemnifiable by the Insurer shall be reduced in such way as these two base values bear to each other.
- 7.4. In case of total damage of the insured property:

7.4.1. In case of destruction of a separately/independently/free standing insured building/structural element, the cost of rebuilding the building/structural element (reinstatement value) is subject to indemnification, at the same time, the property should be restored to the very condition it used to be before the occurrence of the insured event, taking into consideration its depreciation.

7.4.2. In case of destruction of an insured building/structural element located in a condominium, its market value before the occurrence of the insurance event is subject to indemnification.

7.4.3. In case of destruction of the interior/fixture and fitting the cost of its restoration (reinstatement value) is subject to indemnification, at the same time, the property should be restored to the very condition it used to be before the occurrence of the insured event, taking into consideration its depreciation.

7.4.4. In case of destruction of the contents / inventory or other property, the cost of its replacement is subject to indemnification, but not more the very condition it used to be before the occurrence of the insured event, taking into account the depreciation.

7.4.5. In case of destruction/loss of stocks/ finished products ready for sale, its base value is subject to indemnification.

7.5. In case of partial damage of the insured property:

7.5.1. In case of damage of the property - cost of its restoration (reinstatement value) is subject to indemnification (the property should be restored to the very condition it used to be before the occurrence of the insured event, taking into consideration its depreciation).

7.6. If the property reinstatement is complicated by any restricting act adopted by the state, the costs connected with such complication shall not be covered.

7.7. Insurer will indemnify the costs of removal of debris being carried out with the consent of Insurer and which means the removal of debris resulted from dismantling, demolishing, shoring up and propping portions of the destroyed or damaged property by insured risks - up to a limit of 10% of the Sum Insured, if such coverage is explicitly indicated in the relevant insurance policy.

7.8. Insurer will indemnify the reasonable cost of architects, surveyors and consulting engineers' fees following loss destruction or damage by any contingency hereby insured against up to a limit of 10% of the Sum Insured, if such coverage is explicitly indicated in the relevant insurance policy.

- b) Maintenance and warranty servicing cost of the object.

Article 8. Insurance Act and Indemnification

8.1. Upon receipt of all the documents required for indemnification (inter alia loss assessment act (cost estimation)) an Insurance Act is drawn up, which is a basis for indemnification and is signed by both parties (the Insurer and the Insured/Beneficiary). By signing the Insurance Act, the parties agree on the final amount of the insurance indemnification and other conditions, after which, within the terms of article 4.2.4, the insurance reimbursement will be transferred for the benefit of the Insured (Beneficiary) on the bank account number indicated in the Insurance Act.

8.2. If the Insurer and the Insured fail to reach agreement on final volume of loss, the loss shall be estimated by an independent expert. The costs of the loss estimation shall be covered by that party who initiates such assessment, in case of joint initiative, the costs are shared equally.

8.3. In case of total loss of the property, the amount to be reimbursed by the Insurer shall be reduced by the remained insurance premium amount (if such exists) for the remained insurance period to be paid to the Insurer by the Insured.

8.4. If the insured interest covered under this Agreement and a relevant insurance policy is insured simultaneously at several insurers, the Insured shall inform the Insurer on such insurance and specify the names of the other insurers and the sum insured in the respective written notification. In this case, i.e. if it is proved that the insured interest is covered against one and the same risks with several insurers and the total amount of the insurance indemnification exceeds the market value, the insurers shall be jointly liable to pay the sum provided under the relevant Insurance Agreement (Insurance Policy), but the Insured shall have no right to get the sum that exceeds the real loss in total.

Article 9. Stillage Warranty regarding stock insurance

9.1. In case of insurance of stocks/ finished products ready for sale, if the risks defined by article 2.17 and 2.18 are covered by the relevant insurance policy, only such stocks/ finished products ready for sale will be deemed insured against these risks, which are stored on racks shelves or stillages not less than 12 centimeters above the floor level.

Article 10. Subrogation

10.1. The right of subrogation to the loss inflicted to the responsible person within the limit if the paid compensation shall be transferred to the Insurer who paid the insurance indemnification. The Insured shall transfer all the available documents, in original or duly certified, required to use the right of subrogation.

10.2. Waiver of the claims and rights which ensure fulfillment of requirements of the person responsible for loss, as well as refusal to the Insurer to transfer all the documents required as recourse by the latter, shall release the Insurer from payment of the insurance indemnification, and if the insurance indemnification has been paid already, the Insurer shall be entitled to recover the sum paid.

Article 11. Disputes and Damages

11.1 Any dispute arising between the Parties shall be settled by agreement of the Parties and if the Parties fail to reach such agreement, the dispute shall be settled in compliance with the Georgian legislation by court of Georgia.

11.2 Disputes arisen in connection with this Contract shall be referred to the mediator of the Georgian Insurance Association's "Insurance Mediation" on hot line: (+995 32) 2 555 155, or at address: 24 Mosashvili st. - f) if the limit of insurance indemnification determined by the Insurance Policy has expired;
- g) if the increase of the insurance risk is caused by the negligent or intentional act of the Insured, its representative or any person acting on behalf of the Insured;
- h) preliminary written agreement of the parties;
- i) other cases provided under the laws of Georgia and/or this Agreement.

13.2. if the Insurer on its own initiative terminates the Insurance Policy/Insurance before its validity period (except for sub clauses a, c, d, and f of clause 13.1 of the given agreement, when the insurance shall be terminated upon the moment of occurrence of such fact), it shall send a 30-day prior written notice to the Insured to that effect to his/her actual address. In such case the unearned part of the insurance premium shall be paid back to the Insured provided that Insurance Policy was not terminated due to its fault/guilt and he/she returns the original Insurance Policy within 14 days upon termination thereof and also considering the condition stated under clause 13.4.

13.3. if the Insured terminates the Insurance Policy on its own initiative, he/she shall send a 30-day prior written notice to the Insurer's actual address. The Insured shall be paid back the unearned insurance premium upon its written application. Besides, earned insurance premium shall be subject to payment by the Insured. Notwithstanding the aforementioned, condition under clause 13.4. shall be foreseen/taken into consideration in any case.

13.4. In case of indemnification of any loss by the Insurer with regard to particular property/Policy upon the termination of the insurance, the unearned premium with regard to such property/policy shall not be the subject of return, while in case of payment by installments; the unearned premium shall be the subject of full coverage by the Insured.

Article 14. Miscellaneous Provisions

14.1. Any amendment or supplement to this Agreement shall be valid if made in writing and signed by both the parties. They shall be an integral part of the Agreement.

14.2. Should any of the articles/clauses of the Agreement become invalid, it shall in no way invalidate the whole Agreement, if the Agreement should have been concluded anyway without such invalid article/clause.

14.3. Any note necessary for implementation of this Agreement shall be made in writing or send via fax, or registered letter to the address of the parties, in case of failure of immediate provision of information to the Insurer about the change to an address/location, any correspondence/notification sent by the Insurer shall be deemed received by the Insured.

14.4. This Agreement with the undertakings herein shall be applied to assignees, representatives and attorneys of both parties.

14.5 By signing this Agreement, the Parties acknowledge that the agreement has been concluded on the basis of reasonable consideration and that the signing parties are duly authorized to do so.

14.6. By signing Insurance policy and Application, the Insured also certify that he has read and agree on Insurance terms and conditions which were available before the signing current Insurance Agreement.

14.7. By signing the present agreement Insured grants the right to Insurer or Insurer's affiliate to indicate Insured as an Insurers customer and/ or to indicate the existence of the present agreement (without prejudice to confidentiality) for advertising of Insurer's business or to make public announcement (including written form, mass media, internet etc.) regarding the Insurer.
